Dear Jay,

Sorry that with the confusion of the boys "helping" me, I forgot the enclosed sixth sheet.

I didn't have a chance to go over my mail carefully while you were here. When I had from one of my boys makes it even more important that interests be developed in the names I gave you as you left, particularly by those interested in the territory of the last of your people I will see, meaning, really, in particularly, that name.

You know about those bits and pieces. This brief thing is several in one.

Glad you could make it. Perhaps we can do things.

Hurriedly,

Harold Weisberg
